

Questions for your Men's Meetings

Here are some questions you can rotate through in 2010 in your efforts to care for the men of your group. For further resources to assist you and your wife in leadership, go to: http://www.covlife.org/static/resources_for_care_group_leaders

- i. The Gospel: When was the last time you preached the Gospel to yourself? Are there any scriptures serve to regularly to remind you of Christ's atoning sacrifice? Are you more aware of areas you need to change or the Father's love for you and your union with Christ?
- ii. Spiritual Life: How is your pursuit of communion with God in your daily devotions? What are you studying? How is it impacting your life? What are you praying about? Where would you most like to grow?
- iii. Lust: In what ways have you found yourself tempted or sinning in lust? What steps have you taken to fight your temptation?
- iv. Marriage/Romance: Ephesians 5 calls us to Christ-like loving and sacrificial leadership. Where does your wife need your leadership right now? How are you cultivating affections and showing romance toward your wife? Where do you need to grow?
- v. Evangelism: What individual or individuals have you been praying for and reaching out to? What steps have you taken? What next step do you believe the Lord is calling you to take?
- vi. Leadership: Where do you believe you to need to grow in leadership? In the workplace, home/parenting, pursuit of fellowship?
- vii. Big Picture: Plan for Growth in the Coming Year
