

WATCH YOUR MAN QUESTIONS

1. Though this message was delivered for the wives of pastors, how did it serve to correct or broaden your understanding of every wife's role?
2. What areas have you practiced the principles of this message effectively? What ways were you convicted as you listened?
3. Carolyn mentioned four ways to relate to your husband regarding a potential concern. You can overlook, forbear, share it and drop it, or lovingly persist. What are the biblical principles and scriptures behind each of these options?
4. Is there any situation right now where you remain confused as to what response would best serve your husband? Or any area where you recognize your need to change?
5. Take time for the ladies to pray that they would pursue the Holy Spirit's help in cultivating wisdom as a wife and specific expressions of change in caring for their husbands.
